Review: Craig Johnson's "Walt Longmire" Western-based mysteries are being adapted into a television series this summer on A&E — likely more from a character perspective than a storyline one — and the short story "Divorce Horse" is clearly intended to be a brief introduction for potential viewers of the series. But Johnson misses an opportunity here to actually introduce the characters that ...

With the help of Henry Standing Bear and Cady, Walt sets off to the races to find the missing horse. As author Craig Johnson explains, this short story is the "connective tissue" between his last book, Hell Is Empty and As the Crow Flies, which will be available May 15 (and reviewed here at Kittling: Books).
