25/3/2011 · “Once in a generation, a movie comes along that changes everything. Dr. Horrible is way better than that. It’s like a combination of everything-changing movies; it’s Gone With the Wonderful Life of Citizen Goonies. And it’s shorter.” – Joss Whedon “I hope you enjoy the pictures of me. I know I do.” – Captain Hammer, from his...

I found Dr. Horrible on Netflix one late night. I've been a fan ever since. I watch it often. Then they came out with this Dr. Horrible Sing-Along Blog Book which is a companion guide to the DVD. Gives you a lot of information about the show including background information, fun items, and sheet music so you can sing ...

Dr. Horrible's Sing-Along Blog wasn't the first made-for-web mini movie/series, but it took a cute idea and put it on a platform that allowed it to flourish.

20/4/2011 · I can hardly believe that Dr. Horrible's Sing-Along Blog came out in 2008. I remember the excitement about the series that swept over the internet. It felt like it was just last year. Maybe that's because I watch the web series and listen to the soundtrack on a regular basis. It doesn't get old.

The premise of Dr. Horrible's Sing-Along Blog is that a classic villain is video blogging. Also, this video blog happens to be a musical. Needless to say, it's unique. The video blog part was inspired by Felicia Day's The Guild, but productions of this type with big-name actors are still exceedingly rare.

10/4/2020 · Horrible's Sing-Along Blog was made by adrift professionals during the 2007-2008 Writer's Guild of America strike. It was a fun side project using little time and budget.

If this hadn't been the case, we'd have gotten at least a musical montage of Dr. Horrible's attempt at a heist worthy of the League.
