Surrender is book six in the Steel Brothers series, and it is not a standalone! You must read the previous five books to understand this book. This book concludes Jonah and Melanie's love story, however there are at least two more books to come. I love the way Helen Hardt writes as she pulls me into her books so that everything else disappears.

16/5/2017 · In typical Helen fashion there were no holds barred, no inhibitions and it was most certainly all raw, carnal fire. I think that Helen Hardt has her character development BANG on the money - she maintains that Steel brothers' familiarities whilst at the same time differentiating them no just with their though processes but also with their actions.
