require text-dependent analysis; accordingly, aligned curriculum materials should have a similar percentage of text-dependent questions.

As the name suggests, a text-dependent question specifically asks a question that can only be answered by referring explicitly back to the text being read. It

Chapter 3 tells us that when students pay attention to how the text works, it helps them to to build the bridge between what the text says (literal meaning) and what the text means (deeper meaning). The authors concentrate on 3 main types of questions when learning about how the text works... vocabulary, structure, and craft.

A key method to help
