8/11/2010 · There's not much to be said about the plot of Xombies (retitled Xombies: Apocalypse Blues for the 2010 re-release) that isn't covered in the blurb above; at least, not without giving away some major, fascinating plot-points. The action rolls along at an unforgiving pace, aided by some wonderful (and often severely-flawed) characters.

19/1/2010 · "Xombies: Apocalypticon" is author Walter Greatshell's followup to his acclaimed Berkley novel, "Xombies", also retitled "Xombies: Apocalypse Blues", under the re-release by Ace. Personally, I like the original title and especially the original cover a lot better, but marketing departments have the final say in the end, right or wrong.

Xombies: Apocalypse Blues / 978-0-441-01835-2 I love zombie fiction, and seem to be going through a lot of it lately. "Xombies" is one of those apocalypse novels where the emphasis is so much more on the human reaction to the breakdown of society, ...

Zombie Apocalypse Blues (S. McCorkindale, H.P. Lovecraft, Miss Jones) Life eclipsed by shadows
Then the morning comes
The dead come for you so load your fucking guns (Of your bullets I'd save one)
There is death in the clouds
There is fear in the night
The dead in their shrouds
Hail the sins turning flight
From their graves the dead will crawl
